Kasenga Provenó of Chief Chundu. [1] The musical career admires Kasenga's musical career was a nourished in the rural uls of Zimbabwe where the late artist passed part of his life. He was the main vocalist and Láder of the crew of Ngosimbi formed while working in Mutako and the group had successful songs such as Tãa Rhoda, Pamuchate Watobias and Chitima Nditakure Zvangu. Three years after, he found a job at the Madzekas hotel, a Mutako country hotel as a cleaner. The disease and death Kasenga succumbed to a long illness on October 17, 2004. But as well as, despite all this, Kasenga continued to be practically unknown by the people of the city and in 1997, he moved to Harare and He settled in Dzivarekwa. You can see a list of compatible browsers in our Help Center. Aware of how difficult the music industry was, Kasenga launched a second E;lbun, the rhoda tãa that hit a rich vein with the popular Pamuchate Watobias song that was put on video. A luminaire in its own right, Kasenga died at the age of 34 years in his brother's house in Chinhoi. Forever Fasting Season 5 - Admire Kasenga. This movement helped expose the club to the group and the crew of Ngosimbi became part of the city's musical landscape, since then he launched other â;lbumes that were sold well that his previous works. When Bothwell Nyamhondera, producer of the Zimbabwe's music company/ Zimbabwe of Zimbabwe, listened to this group, audition it and his debut E;lbun, Masetssiste in arrived in 1993, but because he came from the backyard of Harare, this Great work did not attract much attention. of radio or print media. He became popular with his song 'tãa rhoda', Taking that opportunity to demonstrate his valley, And a group of children who had chosen from the community, whom he knew were good musicians but who had not been given the opportunity, struck out with all his strength. Then later the name of the crew of Ngosimbi Ngosimbi Accounted from the Chibudya dialect. In Aunt Rhoda, for example, Admire talks about respecting the elderly and encourages young people to call their elders by names. The opportunity of him occurred when the hotel was looked for a musical group that would provide entertainment for customers and admired, that he had not shown him in the music that stepped forward and offered to do the job. Maybe Kasenga â, Amplification. The virtues of African culture. Because admiring to have success in Harare with the many musicians of him, whose roots are firmly established, was a clear sign of how good he was. The fame and popularity of the group were extended and the enchanted fans referred in a joke at the group and the group's play style as "SIMBI". The songs were among the success of the music that shook the waves and social gatherings at the end of the 90s and early in the new millennium. Admire Kasenga was a musical Zimbabwean. He directed the crew of Ngosimbi for many years before his death in 2004. Born in Karoi, where he made his primary education at Mashongwe school before moving to Guruve for his secondary education at the Chitindiva School, the Admire began with his "Homeboy" Mitchell Jambo and Marunga Express playing the bass in 1990. The radio and the print media were given of the potential in the artist of Mutoko and so well the album was saved quite well at a time when Groups like the Ngwenya brothers were hot on the scene. Background Admire Kasenga, now late, was born in 1970 in the city of Karoi and spent in 2004. Madzekas is about 140 km from Harare along the Nyamapanda road. He is well remembered by popular songs to Tãa Rhoda and Pamuchato WA Tobias. The management of the hotel could not believe it, but in the second thoughts he decided to put him in trial while he kept him as a cleaner. The other song of him, Chikumbiro, was a petition of God to help find a cure for HIV and AIDS and this song is a prayer that almost everyone is saying in silence.
